Helping the handicap, poor students	(1) To cooperate with the local Disability Society to help poor handicap students to become mobile and with hearing aids. (2) To help poor students and families with food, school uniforms and school supplies so that they can attend school. (3) The volunteers will follow up with all these students and families by providing Bibles and sharing the good news with them. In CF public Bible study is prohibited so the volunteers will hold small groups in homes. All the families are atheists and it is a very good opportunity to mingle with them to have Bible studies with them. (4) The whole community have not heard about Jesus, this project will allow them to know about Jesus and His salvation. (5) To build a good relationship with the local Disability Society so that they will be more receptive to Christianity and participate in future activities.	CF Church	Minority tribes	CHUM
Loving Lodge	(1) "Loving Lodge "will be launched in an urban slum in a CF City, which is one of the least developed cites. which struggles with criminal activities. (2) The project will target the large number of very poor people living in this area, such as children of single families, elderlies living alone and those with disabilities. Operational plan: (a) Rent a commercial unit. (b) Provide free food according to New Start Principles. (c) Conduct bible studies. (d) Teach interest classes such as music and survival training. (e) Provide physical therapy.	Local Church In CF	Urban Slum	CHUM
Gimbie Adventist Health Science College Multi-Purpose Hall	The Gimbie Adventist Health Science College Multi-Purpose Hall Project is an innovative initiative aimed at enhancing healthcare education, spiritual well-being and faith-based outreach in Ethiopia. Will reach the Community through: (1) Worship Services in local language and culturally relevant music and messages to make services engaging. (2) Health talks on lifestyle, nutrition, and disease prevention rooted in Christian values. (3) Evangelism and Bible outreach using small group Bible studies, and public evangelistic meetings. (4) Community Service and Compassion Ministries by Organizing food and clothing drives, disaster response efforts. (5) Education and Literacy Programs by offering adult literacy classes, tutoring for student, and life skills training. (6) Family and Marriage Enrichment seminars and workshops on parenting, healthy relationships, Bible based family life. Provide Bible based counseling and emotional support services for individuals. New Air Urban Mission Center	New Air is a church focused on reaching secular-minded and post-Christian people in Bogota and contributing to helping people in vulnerable situations. Religious studies show there are 3,000,000 secular people in Bogota and 50,000 Adventists, outnumbering us by 50 times. Therefore, we seek to connect with them through an intentional process of discipleship and social support actions in poor areas of the city, inviting them to participate in activities such as: TEDx-style talks on mental health, nutrition, coaching, discussion spaces on the purpose of life, spiritual mentoring programs, Bible studies, breakfast deliveries in the Bronx of Bogota, delivery of school kits to low-income children, delivery of groceries to immigrant families, etc. An education and entrepreneurship program that applies the famous proverb: "Give a man a fish and he'll eat for a day, but teach a man to fish and he'll eat forever." Through this ecosystem of actions, we seek to bless those most in need, applying Christ's method to foster new disciples preparing for the Kingdom of Heaven. Au petit bonheur	(1) A living space accessible to all through a community bar. It's a friendly place where everyone, whatever their cultural or religious background, can enjoy a warm welcome. (2) The aim of this non-alcoholic venue is to offer workshops such as a 'Health Club', board games and a knitting workshop, in order to forge links between neighbours and between generations. (3) The aim is also to offer opportunities to take care of their bodies, such as a 'one-hour walk', and to take care of their spiritual journey, with a workshop 'to (re) discover the Bible'. (4) Volunteers will also be on hand to offer sympathetic listening sessions.	Eglise adventiste d'Agen	Non-Christian	EUD
Chez Théo	"Chez Theo" is a Christian café with a French play on words. (1) We want to show that Christians are interested in the needs of the city. It's about reaching a population that isn't interested in faith, the Church and Christianity. (2) Our aim is to offer students a pleasant place to work or relax, alone or with friends. (3) Programs and events will be organized around global health, as well as games evenings and debates. (4) The aim is to offer Bible studies and develop a spiritual sharing group. (5) We already receive around 12,000 visits a year. We also enjoy a good reputation with the authorities, who appreciate our presence.	Eglise adventiste de Montpellier	Non-Christian	EUD
The Church - A Moment of Respiro	More than 22,000 young people live with a diagnosed mental illness in Romania today. Depression affects at least 3.5% of the population, and the suicide rate has reached 10 per 100,000 people - alarming indicators of a generation in crisis. Behind these numbers are real lives: young adults between the ages of 18 and 25, silently struggling with anxiety, addiction, isolation, and a loss of meaning. Our mission is to offer them a safe space where healing, growth, and transformation can begin. We plan to create a support network through seminars, interactive workshops, one-on-one mentoring, group therapy, and professional counseling services. Our church wants to be more than a building - it aims to become a sanctuary of hope, where youth can find help.	Brancoveanu Seventh Day Adventist Church	Sectorul 4 - Bucharest	EUD
Eskisehir	(1) Establishment of Pathfinder Club in Eskisehir, Türkiye. This initiative aims to support the spiritual growth, social engagement, and leadership development of children and teenagers within the refugee families and local Muslims. (2) Developing a new Pathfinder's Curriculum adapted to the local context and Muslim environment. (3) Create a nurturing environment where children can discover hope and joy. (4) Strengthen relational bridges between refugee families and the local church community. (5) Gently introduce Christian values through acts of love, service, and trust-building activities. (6) Build self-confidence, life skills, and community integration through music and language learning.		Eskisehir	MENA

Fremont Collective	NEED: We are living in isolated, depressed, and anxious times. Those in the church are looking for ways to meaningfully engage a sin-ridden society with the hope-filled gospel of Jesus. OPPORTUNITY: To build a sober-curious community as a magnet for genuine community and meaningful discipleship. We will purchase a food truck to host sober-curious socials (think: mocktails), in which our core team will build relationships with guests and promote alcohol-free environments. Fremont, Seattle is part of a well-known corridor of breweries and bars. This area attracts drinkers and socializing opportunities. However, there are many who are trying to live alcohol-free lives, with nowhere to go and no community to connect with. We would like to create a third-space without booze, whilst building relational bridges and promoting a healthy lifestyle. Hosting monthly community socials around drinks and a food truck will allow us to make relationships that we can then invite to small groups and other spiritual meetings. Owning a food truck will allow us to have a physical presence without the cost of overhead, such as renting a permanent space. PROGRESS SO FAR: We have a team of lifelong and new Adventists who are wanting to grow their faith and engage the community in innovative ways. We are in the iteration phase of finding what works, what doesn't work, and how to grow in gift along the way.	Volunteer Park SDA Church	Fremont, Seattle, WA	NAD
Deeply Rooted Nature Learning	"NEED- Tech-addiction among kids is causing serious harm to child development and is a growing concern among parents. A growing number of families in our community are looking for alternative education options, including nature schools. OPPORTUNITY- Launch an Adventist Nature School program for kids ages 4-8 to facilitate holistic development through quality, hands-on, faith-based, tech-free education in a 100% outdoor environment. It will begin with 2 teachers and 16 students with the goal to ultimately expand to TK-8th grade. NEW DISCIPLES & CHURCHES- Intentionally form friendships with unchurched families around Deeply Rooted and invite them to journey with a newly planted network of Adventist micro churches where they can be discipled to become Adventist followers of Jesus. PROGRESS SO FAR- We launched Deeply Rooted Nature Learning in 2024-2025 with 12 families enrolled (includes Adventists, Christians, Unchurched, and Sikh). We have already built friendships and hosted socials and a Bible study group. The Adventist Micro Church Network has been approved as a mission group and is building their team (25+ people) and vision. The MIF 2026 Grant will help grow and develop Deeply Rooted to self-sustain, so it can inspire others with this innovative and reproducible approach to discipling unchurched families."	Tacoma SDA Micro Church Network	Tacoma, Washington	NAD

Transforming Communities Through Christ-Center	This project brings together the church and school to reach local families and children, using parenting support as an entry to share the gospel. In August, a seminar led by a school counselor will build initial trust with families. In October, the Saniku Festival will feature student exhibits, parent-led performances, and a Christian praise concert (Lira), strengthening community ties. In November to December, a Bible seminar will invite non-Christian parents and children to hear the gospel. Through each phase—sowing, growing, and harvesting—this project offers a dynamic, community-centered model of educational evangelism and promotes joyful outreach participation among children, youth, and busy parents, advancing Total Member Involvement (TMI). Sunnyside SDA Blessings in Bloom Initiative	(1) This project intends to transform existing Sunnyside SDA church facilities into a dual-purpose hub that nurtures young minds and promotes community health. This project will establish a low-cost preschool and a community health clinic under one roof, maximizing resources while addressing two critical local needs: early Adventist childhood education and accessible primary healthcare. (2) By leveraging existing infrastructure and mobilizing local volunteers and professionals, the project intends to minimize overhead while delivering high-impact Christian-based services. (3) The preschool will serve up to 30 children, mainly targeting the Non-Adventist families, focusing on foundational learning, character development, and school readiness in a safe, Adventist-based environment. (4) Simultaneously, the clinic will provide basic medical care to underserved families, including maternal health support, and Adventist health education, serving an estimated 60-100 patients. With a sustainable design, strong community ties, and a modest budget of $66,000, this project serves as a replicable model for churches seeking to be a beacon of hope, healing, and opportunity in their neighborhoods. Children's Music School	(1) Music School is a Christian music education initiative in Lviv, Ukraine. The project aims to reach children and youth through quality music instruction combined with spiritual values and performances at themed events. This school offers an innovative, creative and practical way to present the Gospel and help children grow both musically and spiritually. (2) In addition to music the project seeks to gain spiritual outcomes through the establish a Pathfinder and Adventurer club based on the music school participants. Through regular meetings, spiritual lessons, and musical activities, children will be introduced to Christian values and church life. Parents will be involved through concerts, Family Days, and invitations to church programs. (3) The program consists of weekly music lessons (instrumental or vocal), small group rehearsals and quarterly performances or mission concerts in churches, schools and community venues. (4) The school is designed primarily for children and adolescents, of all backgrounds. The program will be free for all students, supported by the project's allocated funds and donations. The project also includes seasonal events, such as Christmas and Easter concerts, and other music-related events. (5) A key innovation is the combination of artistic excellence, Christian discipleship, and social mission. This gives students the opportunity to become not just performers, but also messengers of Christ through music. (6) The ultimate goal of the project is not only to teach music but to establish a new spiritual community for children and families, leading them into a closer relationship with Christ and involvement in church life. "From pain, into Life ”	(1) This innovative outreach project, initiated by the Seventh-day Adventist Church community in Kovel, Ukraine, seeks to address the growing needs of individuals affected by the war - especially those with disabilities resulting from injuries sustained in combat or due to shelling. The core component is the purchase and operation of a specially equipped transport vehicle for wheelchair users. (2) At present, there is no public or state-provided service for this demographic in Kovel, despite there being approximately 2,000 wheelchair-bound individuals in the area - a number that is steadily increasing. Our Church community believes that mobility is dignity, and we are committed to being the hands and feet of Christ by reaching out to those in physical and emotional pain. God's Family	An Adventist school has been operating onsite of our house of prayer for 10 years. More than 150 children aged from 3 to 16 years old attend our school daily while the vast majority of them do not belong to the Adventist community. We dream of a powerful project aimed at popularizing biblical values and involving students of our school and their parents in church life. We plan to hold a number of evangelistic programs and camps, open clubs and make these activities ongoing. Our goal is to reach people for Jesus through various effective and innovative approaches, starting with the local population. These include: (1) Holding various events for children of all ages (camps, festivals, hikes, interactive Bible quests, evangelistic programs, Bible school, etc.). (2) Holding various events for young parents (interactive family meet ups, thematic programs on raising children and restoring family relationships, parenting conferences, evangelistic programs, Bible courses, etc.). (3) Creating innovative clubs for children using modern technologies in order to develop practical skills. (4) Clubs for parents (health club, cooking class, fitness club, etc.). (5) Social work involving the target audience (days of city service, good deeds).	Seventh-day Adventist Church in Cherkassy	local children, their parents, young families	UKUC

Women Empowerment Center	(1) Garoua is a city where early marriages and polygamy predominate among the population. (2) Some young girls are forced by their parents to leave school early to get married. (3) Unfortunately, after some months or years, the majority of married women are divorced and abandoned leaving them without any means of survival. (4) Left on their own, the only activity they are capable of is rural activity but access to the land for farming is not easy for women. (5) On the other hand, Garoua is also a city of refuge for displaced people from Boko Haram terrorists. (6) The project aims to build a multi-purpose women center to prioritize this category of women. (7) The center will be equipped with high-performant sewing and embroidery machines. (8) After training, the women can make clothes ready to sell. (9) The center will be a center for literacy also for those who did not go or who left school very early. (10) The traumatized women can be cared for by qualified people who will be invited. The purpose is to create links with the community and our church members that there may be interest in the Bible. Breaking the Poverty Cycle	Single teenage mothers in Koforidua, Ghana, particularly in Anlo Town and Zongo communities, face severe challenges. These young mothers are vulnerable to various sexual and reproductive health consequences, including ST is, repeated pregnancies, and gender-based violence. Additional challenges include anemia, poor nutrition, psychological distress, and disrupted education, perpetuating generational poverty. The situation in community is alarming, with many girls dropping out of school due to family and social pressures. This project aims to address the complex challenges faced by teenage single mothers in these communities, including limited education, economic instability, and social stigma. Budget: The Church has already undertaken a significant project by constructing a six-unit classroom block with an office and a store on a six acre piece of land at a cost of $49,231.00 which is still under construction. Help me to be educated after civil war – Bangui Castor	(1) The project "Help Me to Be Educated After Civil War - Berberati" aims to rebuild hope through education by constructing and equipping six classrooms for primary school children in Berberati, a city deeply affected by the prolonged civil war in the Central African Republic. Thousands of children have been displaced or orphaned, and many schools were destroyed, leaving a large portion of the young population without access to safe and structured learning. (2) This project goes beyond construction - it is a symbol of recovery and a catalyst for transformation. The classrooms will be built using local labor and materials, engaging the community directly in the process and giving them ownership of the outcome. Each classroom will be equipped with desks, chairs, blackboards, and basic learning materials, creating a conducive environment for at least 300 children. (3) Interaction with our church family will allow the children to create trust and interest in bible studies and sabbath school.	Seventh-day Adventist Church, Berberati	Berberati	WAD
